

Our Class Names

Learning about individuals who demonstrate innovation, resilience & excellence

We have named our classes after key figures who represent our curriculum threads of sustainability, creativity, diversity and community. Each class learns about their figure and presents a class assembly to our school community.

Year 3

Attenborough

English broadcaster, biologist, natural historian and author who highlights the dangers of climate change & its impact on our planet.

Carson

Rachel Carson was an American marine biologist, writer, and conservationist whose influential book 'Silent Spring' advanced a global environmental movement.

Goodall

60 years of groundbreaking work, Dr. Jane Goodall has shown us the urgent need to protect chimpanzees from extinction and highlighted the threats of habitat destruction on species.

Year 4

Hadid

Dame Zaha Mohammad Hadid was an Iraqi-British architect, artist and designer, recognised as a major figure in modern architecture.

Kahlo

Magdalena Carmen Frida Kahlo was a Mexican painter known for her many portraits, self-portraits, and works inspired by the nature and artefacts of Mexico.

Berners-Lee

Tim Berners-Lee is an English computer scientist best known as the inventor of the World Wide Web.

Year 5

Tull

Orphan, footballer & soldier, Walter Tull was the first ever Black officer in the British Army to lead white men into battle.

Ayling-Ellis

Rose Ayling-Ellis is an English actress. Deaf since birth, she is a British Sign Language user & representative of the deaf community.

Hawking

Stephen Hawking was a theoretical physicist who made revolutionary contributions to our understanding of the universe & blackholes whilst fighting motor neurone disease.

Year 6

Gregg

William Gregg of Heanor, Derbyshire was an English recipient of the Victoria Cross, the most prestigious award for gallantry in the face of the enemy that can be awarded to British and Commonwealth forces.

Hallam

Vic Hallam was the son of a Marlpool miner who established the local company Vic Hallam Ltd. An entrepreneur and innovator Vic had the idea to produce prefabricated classrooms for schools from his premises in Langley Mill.

Arkwright

Sir Richard Arkwright was an English inventor and a leading entrepreneur during the early Industrial Revolution who became known as the father of the modern-day factory, fist established in the Derwent Valley, Derbyshire.

Sustainability

Creativity

Diversity

Community

